

THE 2019 CAMINO PILGRIMAGE

Saturday 4 May – Saturday 25 May 2019

Rome • Assisi • Barcelona • Montserrat • Camino Pilgrimage • Santiago • Madrid • Toledo

We will walk the final 110kms journey from Sarria to Santiago de Compostela and arrive on Sunday 19th May 2019, to join with fellow pilgrims and celebrate Eucharist in the Cathedral of St James. On Tuesday we will travel (on bus!) to Finisterre to make the journey complete, as James did.

Free time to explore in Rome, Assisi, Barcelona, Montserrat, Madrid and Toledo. Plan to join us for a reasonably priced experience in Christian pilgrimage, as we experience some of the most treasured places of our heritage and story.

"The Camino Tour was a fantastic experience which I would strongly recommend to anyone. The history and amazing sites that Rome offered was fabulous.

The Camino itself offered a new experience everyday, with time to simply stop and take in magnificent scenery. Madrid was a great way to wrap up the tour with the immersion into yet another diverse culture. We were blessed with the tour organisers, Paul & Marina, who took control of all the organisation, including outstanding tour guides along the way.

A memorable experience!"

CAMINO PILGRIMAGE 2019

Pilgrimage is an experience common to all religions and cultures. In it, what is proper to human nature finds expression. The world does not constrain the human person, but rather like a waymark, opens it to transcendence, to God. Humankind has always known that the world is not its final destination, that here we are always travellers...

"Leave your country, your people, and the home of your parents, and go to a place which I will show you".

(Genesis 12: 1)

Christians enact the pilgrimage of faith. The Church defines itself in this world as the pilgrim Church, in search of the heavenly homeland. The profound meaning of pilgrimage for Christians can thus be understood. We do not go in search of the divine to some far off or unknown source, but rather return to the depths of our own faith, find the experience of the truth in our own lives, renew our own existence, while reaffirming the need and the possibility of forgiveness, of the compassionate embrace, of the grace of the jubilee.

As Jesus was walking along the Sea of Galilee, he watched two brothers – Simon, who was called Peter, and Andrew – casting a net into the sea. They fished by trade. Jesus said to them, "Come, follow me, and I will make you fishers of humankind." They immediately abandoned their nets and began to follow Jesus. He went along further and caught sight of a second pair of brothers – James and John. They too were in their boat, mending their nets with their father. Jesus called them, and immediately they abandoned both boat and family and followed him.

(Matthew 4: 18-22)

"It is good to have an end to journey toward; but it is the journey that matters, in the end."

(Ernest Hemingway)
